Robert Miller Scholarship

for Viticulture and Enology

Investing in the future of young people from the Central Coast who want to make their career in the Central Coast grape and wine industry.

Robert Miller Scholarship for Viticulture and Enology

Robert “Bob” Miller was an effective leader in the California wine community and a significant contributor to establishing the Central Coast as a premier winegrowing region of California. His family has created this scholarship to honor his memory, his passion for innovation and his commitment to producing high quality grapes and wine.

Bob’s enthusiasm for building a world-class wine region will be perpetuated by investing in the future of young people from the Central Coast who want to make their career in the Central Coast grape and wine industry. Each year either a $500 (for Alan Hancock Community College) or a $1,000 (for Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo) scholarship will be awarded.

To qualify for the scholarships, students must:

- Be a Central Coast high school senior graduating in 2020 or a student enrolled at Alan Hancock Community College or Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo;
- Plan to major or are majoring in viticulture or enology at either Alan Hancock Community College or Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo;
- Complete the application form;
- Attach official, high school transcript and/or most current class enrollment and transcript forms;
- Attach a copy of your SAT or ACT results if you are applying for Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo;
- Provide a letter of recommendation from an instructor, the school principal or counselor – or college instructor, counselor or administrator. The letter should be signed and provide the address, telephone number and position held in the school.
- Submit a 500 word essay that tells the committee about you, your financial need, your career goals, and how you plan to help your community. Addressing some or all of the following questions and statements below may assist you in writing your essay, but addressing these specific questions and statements is not required to complete the essay.
 - Tell us about your family relationships and financial need.
 - Is attending college common in your family?
 - Why do you want to continue your education?
 - Tell us about your extracurricular activities, community service and any work experience you may have.
 - How will this scholarship make a difference in your continued education?
 - What accomplishments are you most proud of?
 - What are your career goals and estimated timelines to achieve these goals?
 - How do you plan to give back to your community?

The Scholarship is administered by the California Association of Winegrape Growers Foundation and its Scholarship Committee will award the scholarships based on the following criteria:

- Financial need
 - Demonstrated scholastic ability
 - Community involvement and leadership and/or work employment.
 - Community involvement, leadership, and/or work history is a broad category that assumes one or a combination of the following:
 - Community service;
 - Employment where the student is making a contribution to the California economy which may not allow time for community service;
 - Sports participation with the understanding that these activities build character and leadership skills, teach strategic and analytical thinking and promote goal setting and teamwork.
 - Your determination to succeed
 - 500 word essay
- Children of current directors or employees of the California Association of Winegrape Growers Foundation are not eligible to apply.
- Students may forfeit their scholarship eligibility and/or award for any of the following reasons:
- Enrollment in less than 12 units per semester
 - Grades that drop below 2.0 in any given semester
 - Providing false or misleading educational or eligibility information
 - Any form of plagiarism
- In addition, the CAWG Foundation reserves the right to withdraw a scholarship at any time if the conditions of the scholarship or the CAWG Foundation policies are violated.
